HULL OF SHERIDAN UNINJURED

DIVER MADE AN IMPORTANT EXAMINATION OF THE WRECKED VESSEL YESTERDAY.

Reports from the wrecked Sheridan are very favorable. An examination made yesterday by the diver who arrived here from San Francisco, showed that instead of the vessel being seriously damaged with rocks sticking up in her bottom as some reports had indicated, her hull is intact. The diver discovered that the vessel is resting amidships on a hard coral rock ledge extending about 35 to 40 feet the length of the ship. The remainder of the vessel is not aground. There were no holes found in the bottom of the vessel and she does not appear to have sustained any marked damage. The plates by the starboard bilge where she pounded the hardest, have been dented and it is thought that the leak in her may be in that part of the bottom. The seams in the lower bottom have possibly opened, allowing the water to get into the vessel. The diver is making interior examinations of the submerged engine and fire rooms today with a view to ascertaining conditions in that section. He will try to ascertain whether the pounding did not wrench some fastening in the floor loose, making a place through which the water came up through the second bottom. One of the hoisting engines taken to the vessel night before last had been rigged up by the time the steamer Iwalani arrived at the wreck yesterday morning.

THE DEMOCRATS HAVE PRIMARIES

RETURNS BEING SLOWLY MADE TO SECRETARY EMMELUTH—DELEGATES CHOSEN.

Democrats held their primary elections throughout the county yesterday. All of the results have not been reported to Secretary John Emmeluth of the County Committee. There were no particular contests in the various precincts, although a few more candidates were placed in nomination than delegates were elected.

The elections were for delegates to the Territorial, District and County conventions, each delegate being elected to attend all of those conventions. The result in the First precinct of the Fourth District was as follows: John Kialana, R. Beverley Kidd, Joseph Aea, David Kellipio, Hosea Iwila, J. P. Kahlamoe, Paulo Ke'a, M. K. Puhaina, S. K. Kahalewal, J. Kellinul, and P. Maika.

DEPARTED THIS MORNING.
The transport Thomas departed this morning at 10 o'clock for Guam and Manila.

DELEGATES FACED VOTING BOOTHS

THE MOST STRIKING THING IN THE CONVENTION WAS THIS SYMBOL OF SECRECY.

When the delegates to the Republican County convention took their seats in the Orpheum this morning they faced twenty-three small voting booths, just like those which the Australian ballot law provides for marking ballots on regular election days. The booths had been erected, according to caucus instructions so that there might be a strictly secret ballot. It was a new thing in conventions and was the subject of some bitter criticism.

The convention was called to order by Chairman Huestace at 9:25. Huestace merely stated the purpose of the gathering and set Secretary Zablan to work calling the roll of 255 delegates.

DILLINGHAM AND HUSTACE.
Outside, for an hour the delegates and candidates had been busy canvassing the situation. Canvassers last night of both road and police forces indicated efforts to allow Dillingham to run. It was Dillingham and Huestace for supervisors from the Fourth, with Gear as second choice if Dillingham was shut out by the rule requiring personal presence of candidates.

In the county attorneyship fight the split of the Fourth by Cathcart and Andrade threatened to give the nomination to Carlos Long, who had the Fifth fairly solid. The day began with efforts to get Andrade to withdraw, on the ground that Cathcart led him in Fourth district pledged votes. The same situation developed with regard to Dow and Bicknell for the auditorship with a Fifth district dark horse waiting for opportunity, but Dow's strength was not apparently very great. Several big fights were in prospect when the convention opened aside from those over the nominations. The Carter resolutions proposition promised the hottest rumpus. It was predicted that this would be the fight of the day.

THE CONVENTION COMES TO ORDER

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION PLAN GIVES PLACE TO THE SLATE FOR PERMANENT OFFICERS.

When business began Kaleopu, who was slated for temporary chairman, at once nominated W. W. Harris, the slated permanent chairman. The nomination carried and Harris took the chair amid applause.

"Gentlemen," he said, "before we proceed to business it is in order to take our coats off." Harris did so himself and so did most others. The heat was sweltering.

Col. Jones nominated D. Kalauekani Jr., secretary and there were several seconds. Kalauekani was duly elected and was given a round of applause as he took his place. Chairman Huestace and Secretary Zablan retired.

Col. Jones moved the appointment by the chair of a credential committee to consist of 16 members from each district. The motion carried and Harris called for names from the precinct chairman.

Oscar Cox moved that an interpreter be chosen and nominated W. J. Coelho who was promptly selected and given a warm round.

TO CUT OUT LONG.
During the recess while the credentials committee worked the second of the Fourth held a caucus and decided to cast its 19 votes solid for John W. Cathcart for county attorney. This was a considerable victory for Cathcart, as the primary vote a week ago resulted in a Cathcart stand nine for Cathcart and 10 for Andrade and the Cathcart men fought for giving up the unit rule and letting Cathcart have his nine. Today, however, the prospect of Long winning out was waved before the caucus as a sort of red flag and it decided to work solidly for Cathcart.

THE COMMITTEES.
The credentials committee went into session while the convention took a recess. The committee consisted of the following, by precinct: Fourth District—T. P. Cummins, J. H. Craig, J. P. Dias, H. T. Murray, A. R. Phillips, H. Klemme, Moses Pipi, O. C. Swain, A. Bright, Charles Kannol; Fifth District—R. W. Davis, B. Poepe, A. Cox, C. Hall, N. Watson, Darcy, D. Kama, C. Hartwell, C. Spencer, J. W. Lloyd.

THE PERMANENT ORGANIZATION

THE CONVENTION FINALLY COMPLETES ORGANIZATION AND TAKES A RECESS TO 2 O'CLOCK.

In the credentials committee there was a tie over whether J. Palani or D. K. Watson was rightly elected a delegate from the Fourth of the Fifth. Some member of the committee who had a dollar was called upon to toss it up, and Watson won and was therefore declared to be a duly elected member of the convention.

THE BOY ORATOR.
The committee report was presented at eleven and the Boy Orator moved to adopt it. Kaleopu said the report was not in proper form, being signed by the secretary of the committee, instead of the chairman. The motion was seconded, but a discussion and vote was stopped by Harry Murray, chairman of the committee, stepping up and signing the report.

Election of a permanent chairman was the next business. Kaleopu nominated Harris and after numerous seconds he was chosen by acclamation.

For permanent secretary Kaleopu nominated Eugene Aiu and he was chosen with the same unanimity. Harris announced that in order to facilitate business he would appoint D. Kalauekani Jr., and Eugene Buffandeau to assist the clerk. The convention assented.

SOME WITHDRAWALS.
Announcements of the appointments of committees followed. Lucas moved an adjournment to one o'clock. Breckons proposed that time and places of committee meetings be first announced. The chair said the committees should meet at once. It was agreed that they should meet in the convention hall immediately after adjournment.

Crabbe moved to amend Lucas motion to make the adjournment until two o'clock. He said the last convention had had to wait several hours for committee reports and then take a further recess to await them. His amendment carried, and a recess was ordered until two o'clock.

BACK FROM MANCHURIA.

ALL STOPPED TO DO POLITICS

COURT CLERKS, COUNTY OFFICIALS AND BUSINESS MEN TAKE A DAY OFF TO DO POLITICS.

Nearly all of the Territorial offices are deserted today by the clerks. A large number of them are delegates to the County Convention in session today, and a large number who are not delegates are attending the convention to see what is going on. The favorite question asked around the government buildings this morning was "What is the latest from the convention?"

None of the courts were in session this morning. The clerks with the exception of one or two were absent, all of them being down town talking politics. Those that were left behind did not seem to have much to do.

Many people were of the opinion this morning that today should have been declared a holiday in view of the widespread interest among the government employees over the outcome of the local fight.

Around the county offices the same condition of affairs was noticeable. All were either absent or talking politics. But little business was done.

Merchants also were included in the ones interested in the outcome of the fight for the nominations and did but little business this forenoon. It seemed to be true all over town that every one stopped business to do politics.

GEORGE LUCAS INDICTMENT NOLLE PROSSED

ON ACCOUNT OF THE LACK OF EVIDENCE INDICTMENT WAS NOLLE PROSSED.

The indictment against George Lucas was this morning nolle prossed before Judge De Bolt.

George Lucas was a clerk of the Supreme Court and he was indicted by the Grand Jury charged with the embezzlement of the sum of $400 while he held that position.

The indictment against him was nolle prossed this morning, there being no evidence.
